PASTORAL REFLECTIONS

Dear Parishioners,

Here is a letter I hand to the parents who attend my Infant Baptism Preparation Class. The letter serves as a reminder to all parents of the immense responsibility we agreed to when our children were baptized.

*Dear parents,
Congratulations on the birth of your first child! I look forward to helping you prepare for the most important day of your child's entire life---his (her) baptism day!*

The purpose of this letter is to explain your role in the sacrament starting the day after your child is baptized. By having asked the church to baptize your infant child, you have accepted the responsibility of training your child in the practice of the faith. It will be your duty to teach your child to keep God's commandments as Jesus taught us. During the baptism, you will affirm three times that you clearly understand what you are undertaking.

During the Baptism Rite, the priest (or deacon) will speak to you in these words:

Dear parents: You have come here to present this child for baptism. By water and the Holy Spirit he (she) is to receive the gift of new life from God, who is love. On your part, you must make it your constant care to bring him (her) up in the practice of the faith. See that the divine life which God gives him (her) is kept safe from the poison of sin, to grow always stronger in his (her) heart. If your faith makes you ready to accept this responsibility, renew now the vows of your own baptism (emphasis added).

Thus, the church expects you to be the first teachers of your child in the ways of the faith. The church also expects you to be the best of teachers, bearing witness to the faith by what you say and do.

*Your "home is the first school of Christian life" (CCC 1657). The family home serves as the original source of catechesis and evangelization. So inherent is the catechetical role of the parents that the Second Vatican Council calls the family the Ecclesia domestica (domestic Church). The parents are "by word and example...the first heralds of the faith with regard to their children" (LG 11).*

*Your catechetical role cannot be outsourced to Catholic schools, CCD instructors or youth ministers. Only parents can serve this function. Why? Because you have the voice of authority. The family by its very nature is a source of authority, and as such, is the perfect space in which to proclaim the Gospel. "Families are the first and best messengers of the Gospel" (Cardinal Walter Kasper, The Gospel of the Family).*

As you begin your awesome journey with your newborn child, please start preparing yourselves to exercise your catechetical and evangelical authority. I encourage you to absorb as much Adult Faith Formation as possible in your hectic lives. I recognize that it has been a long time since you have had religious education. Remember, the greatest gift you can give your child is passing on the faith to him (her).

A number of parents have asked me to assist them in addressing the catechetical role described in my letter above. This September, the new "Parents' Group" will start meeting after the 9:00 am Mass in the Parish Hall. Over coffee and donuts, we will discuss Answers to Our Kids' Toughest Questions Concerning Catholicism. The actual questions will come from children in the Religious Education program. All are welcome; please join us if you are able.

Peace,
Deacon Jim

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

"When you approach the tabernacle remember that he has been waiting for you for twenty centuries." - Saint Josemaria Escriva

SAINTS AS MODEL STEWARDS

The Church has a full calendar of saints' memorials this week. May those whom we honor inspire us to use our own God-given talents and opportunities as He would have us do.

Monday - St. Sixtus II (d. 258), pope, who was slain as he celebrated Mass in the catacombs. How willing am I to sacrifice for my faith?

Also on Monday - St. Cajetan (d. 1547), cofounder of the Theatines who, besides dedicating themselves to pastoral work, were especially focused on the renewal of priests. As such, the Theatines are regarded as second only to the Jesuits in their effectiveness during the Catholic Reformation.

Tuesday - St. Dominic (d. 1221), founder of the Order of Preachers (better known as the Dominicans), who practice poverty and devote themselves to preaching the Gospel. By the time of his death, he had established 60 friaries in Europe! St. Dominic used his talents as a preacher and combated the heresies of his day. How are we using our gifts to meet the needs of the Church in our time?

Wednesday - St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (d. 1942), born Edith Stein, found the truth she sought in reading the autobiography of St. Teresa of Avila. She was baptized and later became a Carmelite nun. Despite this, the Nazis executed her and other converts from Judaism at Auschwitz. St. Teresa left writings notable for their doctrinal richness and profound spirituality.

Thursday - St. Lawrence (d. 258), was a deacon responsible for distributing alms to the poor. He was executed when, in response to the emperor's demand that he bring him the treasures of the Church, St. Lawrence instead assembled the poor, the widows and orphans and the sick and told the emperor, "These are the riches of the Church."

Friday - St. Clare (d. 1253), a friend of St. Francis of Assisi who with her sister Agnes were the first members of the Second Order of St. Francis, later known as the Poor Clares. Admired for her simplicity and piety, she was consulted by bishops, cardinals and popes.

Saturday - St. Jane Frances de Chantal (d. 1641), after being widowed after only seven years of marriage, was helped by her spiritual director St. Francis de Sales in organizing a religious community, the Congregation of the Visitation. The order helps the poor and the sick. She spoke of "committing ourselves unreservedly to God...keeping nothing back for ourselves but instead are faithful in love."

BURYING CREMATED REMAINS AT CATHOLIC CEMETERIES

Catholic Cemeteries seeks to assist families who are still holding the cremated remains of loved ones and are ready to inter them in sacred ground. The cemeteries of the archdiocese have prepared for the interment of cremated remains in ground burial sections, columbariums, or mausoleum niches, with respectful options for memorialization. Working with the pastor, charity burials also are available to families who desire interment, but cannot financially afford the full cost of burying their loved one. For more information contact the manager at Gate of Heaven Cemetery (13801 Georgia Ave., Silver Spring, MD, 301-871-6500); Mt. Olivet Cemetery (1300 Bladensburg Rd., NE., Washington, DC, 202-399-3000); Resurrection Cemetery (8000 Woodyard Rd., Clinton, MD, 301-868-5141); All Souls Cemetery (11401 Brink Rd., Germantown, MD, 301-428-1995); or St. Mary's Queen of Peace Cemetery (38888 Dr. Johnson Rd., Mechanicsville, MD, 301-475-5005).

NEW MISCARRIAGE SECTIONS AT CATHOLIC CEMETERIES

According to the American Academy of Family Physicians, nearly one in four women experience an early pregnancy loss in her lifetime. Yet, women who lose their baby in the first trimester often do not know their right to claim and respectfully bury what the medical community calls "the product of conception" after a miscarriage. No matter how early the loss, many Catholic couples long to name, inter, and remember their baby as an eternal member of the family. Catholic Cemeteries now offers burial options to answer that great desire of their hearts. For more information on the new Miscarried Baby Sections at Catholic Cemeteries, contact your parish priest or the manager at Gate of Heaven Cemetery (13801 Georgia Ave., Silver Spring, MD; 301-871-6500); Resurrection Cemetery (8000 Woodyard Rd., Clinton, MD; 301-868-5141); All Souls Cemetery (11401 Brink Rd., Germantown, MD; 301-428-1995), or St. Mary's Queen of Peace Cemetery (38888 Dr. Johnson Rd., Mechanicsville, MD; 301-475-5005).
